The Lake County Museum of Art (LCMA) is an art museum and community art center that has been serving Lake County since 1995. This 501(c)(3) registered nonprofit organization offers a variety of programs, including regularly changing fine art exhibitions, art classes for both adults and children, fundraising events, memberships, and more.

Situated on the beautiful shores of Lake Dora in downtown Tavares, LCMA plays a vital role in the community by participating in numerous local programs and events. The museum is a member of the American and Florida Associations of Museums (AFAM), the North American Reciprocal Museum Program (NARM), and the Tavares Chamber of Commerce.

LCMA is funded through memberships, sponsorships, grants, and donations. It receives support from several organizations, including United Arts of Central Florida, the Florida Department of State's Division of Cultural Affairs, the Lake County Department of Tourism & Business Relations, and the National Endowment for the Arts..
